Cielo Zero

Non-alcoholic grape must
Zero alcohol to a hero taste

The times are changing, and we're evolving to appeal to a broader audience with a lighter and more inclusive taste. Pleasure first but also health and responsibility at the same time. The Cielo family aims to showcase the true deliciousness of a unique beverage made from sparkling grape must, completely free of alcohol. This is how Cielo Zero was born, a revolutionary glass of bubbly.
In the beginning, there is always quality grape, and at the end, a refreshing and fragrant taste comes to life with crunchy and zesty sparkle.
A real zero to hero.

Key points:

- ✓ Drink made from grape must, different from the usual dealcoholized wines.
- ✓ WTW Support: water as a key resource for the vine and for the life
- ✓ Benefit Corporation

Tasting Notes

Even a non-alcoholic grape drink has its unique flavour, and Cielo Zero is tangible evidence of this! Its gentle bubbles remind you of elderflowers, almonds, summer fruits and lemon zest. Intense scents merge perfectly with a fizzy and light taste, with a juicy finish. Only the flavour of its aromas will remain in your mouth. Zero heaviness, just sparkling dry juiciness.

Best Food Pairings

The zero-alcohol beverages are a new frontier even for the food pairing matters.
This special sparkling, thanks to its vivid aromas and the soft, lingering taste, is the perfect choice to create appetizing matches with charcuterie platter, soft cheeses and raw seafood. Surprise yourself by pairing Cielo Zero with baked Brie, canapes with ham and figs, and octopus salad with olives, and oysters. You can also use it to create amazing soft drinks. Have fun creating your own Bellini, a special Air Mail or your personal new Spritz, and give space to your mixologist soul. Cielo zero makes your fantasy fly high!
